

Alone in Failure

Getting Started

1. Elijah walked 265 miles from Jezreel to Mt. Horeb in I King 19 (the distance from NOLA to Beaumont, TX). What is the farthest you have traveled on foot or bike?
2. What was your longest car ride or airplane flight?

Digging Deeper

3. Why was Elijah emotionally broken in I Kings 19?
4. Why did God send Elijah to Mt. Horeb (Sinai) during his struggles with depression?
5. Why do you think God was in the still small voice and not the wind, earthquake, and fire (vs. 11-13)?

Read Luke 9:61-62

6. How does Elisha's farewell feast line up with Jesus' words to a potential disciple?

Living It Out

7. How do you naturally respond to personal failure?
8. Who do you have to walk beside you during times of failure?
9. What action is God calling on you to do this week?

I Kings 19:1-21

Failure. It strikes the best of us including prophets and evangelists. Elijah was lost in his failure at Mt. Carmel and now making suicidal requests. During this time of weakness, the LORD comes to Elijah in order to give him strength. Spend time today meditating on how God comes to you in your failures.
