

Alone in Transition

Getting Started

1. What is your favorite children's story or fairy tale?
2. What is the closest you have been to a dangerous wild animal?

Digging Deeper

3. Do you think we should read passages like II Kings 2 as legends meant for instruction or historical reality?
4. What difference does it really make if we see miraculous stories in II Kings 2 as legend and not history?
5. In what ways do you see God working today as He did in the past?

Read Leviticus 26:22

6. How does this curse from the Law illuminate the judgment of the bears in vs. 23-25?

Living It Out

7. How should we pray for our leaders in times of transition?
8. God used Elisha to bring healing to a place that was known for a curse and death. How can God use our church to bring healing to our area?
9. Is it ever appropriate in the Church Age to speak words of cursing as Elisha did at the end of chap 2? When?

II Kings 2:1-25

Transitions. We are in constant transition in this life, and transitions are confusing and terrifying to navigate. Elisha is brought face to face with one of the most difficult transitions in history. He was set up to wear the prophetic mantle of Elijah. II Kings 2 teach us how God is with His people in transition.

Alone in Transition

God is with us in _____ as He was with our ancestors.

God is with us to give _____ to those who
_____ His Word.

God is with us to speak _____ to those in unbelief.
