

Alone in a War

Getting Started

1. What is your fire campfire snack/food?
2. What is your skill level at building a campfire?

Digging Deeper

3. Do you see Obadiah as a compromiser or someone who exercised genuine faith in the LORD in I Kings 18?

Read James 5:13-18

4. In what situations in life should we emulate Elijah and come before God in prayer and praise?
5. What does God offer to those who come before Him in prayer (vs. 15, 16)?
6. Should the answers to prayer in I Kings 18 seem extraordinary or like every day faith to the Christian?

Living It Out

7. Are you more like an Elijah or an Obadiah in your faith and witness?
8. What fear is God calling on you to step out and confront in your service to Him?
9. How would you use this story from Elijah to encourage someone else who is struggling with isolation in their Christian walk?

Elijah: The Man Who Never Walked Alone

I Kings 18:1-46

It is one thing to stand up against the enemy while shoulder to shoulder with your brothers and sisters of faith. It is something else entirely to stand alone when no one else will confront the evils of our day. Elijah knew what it was stand and succeed alone. Through His example we can learn how to endure in solitude.

Alone in a War

The LORD works with a _____ of servants in this _____ war.

The LORD calls for _____ and _____ worship from His people.

The LORD acts through the _____ of His people to bring _____.
