

Trusting God's Power

Getting Started

1. If you dressed up on Halloween, what was one costume you remember from your childhood?
2. Would you rather be very tall (7'1") or very short (4'11")?

Digging Deeper

Read II Corinthians 12:7-10

3. How should we respond when placed in a situation that highlights our weaknesses?

Read Ephesians 6:10-18

4. What provisions does God give to the church as we face spiritual battles today?
5. The stress of the family heritage of David ends I Samuel 17. What impact can godly living have on a person's family?

Living It Out

6. In God's economy no past experience is wasted, how can we use this truth as encouragement for self and others?
7. Tell a story of one time when God brought you through a frightening situation with His power.
8. How can you help a brother or sister in Christ to appreciate the provisions given by Christ in a hour of difficult?

DAVID Shepherd to Warrior Trusting God's Power

I Samuel 17:31-58

A beetle is a monster that can devour an entire colony from the perspective of an ant. A beetle is a bug to be trapped in a jar from the perspective of a boy. The giants of this world appear unstoppable and overwhelming from our viewpoint. When the Christian begins to look from the perspective of God, what was once a giant becomes a stepping stone for God's glory.

We can trust in God's power as we _____ His _____

We can trust in God's power as
We are _____ in His _____

We can trust in God's power as we _____ in His _____

God brings _____ to those who trust in Him
