

NO FAVORITES

Acts 10:34-43

We all struggle with the consequences of favoritism in this world. We pick favorites among our friends and even our children as we try to love all the same. We suffer as others pick their favorites, and we are left behind. The only one who gives love without favoritism is our God and Savior Jesus Christ. Through His life and death, may we find no favoritism here!

No Favoritism Here!

Getting Started

1. What food would you most like to try, but you have never tasted?
2. The trip from Joppa to Caesarea was a day's journey to the north. Where would you go tomorrow if you could anywhere within one day's drive?

Digging Deeper

3. Peter's sermons to the Jews earlier in Acts contain the same calls as his sermon to Cornelius. What does Peter's consistent message teach us about the Gospel?

Read Romans 2:9-13

4. What does Paul teach us about the impartial nature of God?
5. What is your favorite moment of Jesus' compassion in the Gospels?

Living It Out

6. How do you feel to know that you will stand before the resurrected Jesus as your judge at the end of days?
7. How can we use God's impartial character when we share the Gospel?

Read James 2:1-9

8. How should we treat one another in light of God's grace?
