

DAVID Fugitive to King

The Kind King

II Samuel 9:1-13

Our God is praised for His holiness, His love, and His power, but we spend far too little time praising Him for His kindness. God is not just powerful, but He is also kind. This morning we will see a daring act of kindness by King David that illustrates for us the kindness of our King and the kindness we should show as His people.

The King's kindness does not come with an _____ date.

The King's kindness knows no _____.

The King's kindness reaches out to the _____ away.

Getting Started

1. Did you ever wish that you had purchased the extended warranty, but you passed at the time of purchase?
2. Would you rather eat no candy at Halloween or no turkey at Thanksgiving?

Digging Deeper

3. Read I Samuel 20:1-2. What dramatic situation brought about David's covenant with Jonathan?
4. Read Psalm 107:1 Why is God good? What does this verse mean about how God counts goodness in us?
5. Why does Mephibosheth count himself as a "dead dog?"
6. Read II Sam 9:11-13. Was David's kindness a one-time act? How did he follow through in his kindness?

Living It Out

7. What does it mean to you that you are in a covenant relationship with God?
8. Do you have any past promises that you have broken that you need to make right this week?
9. How can you show kindness to someone who is undeserving this Thanksgiving season?
