

WE ALL FALL SHORT

Because God's Judgment is Perfect

Romans 2:12-16

God can stand in righteous judgment of every individual because He is the one person who can see this world from every angle and viewpoint. No one will skate by God's judgment because they are part of Israel or because they have personally rejected God. His judgment is perfect and will cover every person.

Those who have God's Law will not be judged on their _____ of the Law but by their _____.

Those who do _____ have God's Law will be judged on _____ revealed in their lives.

Christ Jesus will judge every person on the last day based upon a _____ perspective.

Because God's Judgment is Perfect

Getting Started

1. Would you rather eat 10lbs of string cheese in one sitting or eat an entire jar of Peanut Butter?
2. Would you rather swim across a river with alligators or put both feet in a bucket of snakes?
3. Would you rather wear a clown nose for a month or a sombrero?

Digging Deeper

4. Read Leviticus 18:5. How does the Law of Moses bring life to God's people?
5. Read John 3:16; I Cor 1:18. What does Paul mean when he speaks of men "perishing" without the Law?
6. Read Matt 12:36; Rev 20:11-15. Based upon what will Jesus the lives of men on that Day?

Living It Out

7. What role should your conscious play in your daily life?
8. Why do you think we gravitate toward an increase in laws in this world while at the same point talking about the benefits of freedom?
9. Let's do another round of random encouraging text messages from the church directory!