

A Few of My Favorite
PSALMS

Psalm 23

The most famous of all songs may be one of the most misunderstood songs as the Psalmist dramatically shifts imagery from verse 4 to verse 5. We will see this morning how the Psalmist seeks to comfort us with the King's presence both in this life and in our hope in the life to come. Psalm 23 is your place of comfort for today and as you go home to glory.

The Shepherd provides His sheep with _____ in His _____.

The Shepherd guides His sheep down the
_____.

The King welcomes us into His
_____.

The King is My Shepherd

Getting Started

1. Would you rather be a shepherd or a cattle rancher?
2. Do you have a favorite walking trail or park loop in the area?

Digging Deeper

3. Read Psalm 34:9-10. What kind of people do not live in want of any good thing?
4. Read Hosea 14:1-4. How does the Lord revive (or return) His people?
5. The Shepherd's rod and staff were instruments of discipline and defense. How does the Good Shepherd defend and discipline His people today?
6. Read Romans 8:31-39. How is the Lord with His people forever?

Living It Out

7. What does it mean to you to be at rest with your Good Shepherd?
8. How do we know when we are walking on right paths?
9. How does Psalm 23 comfort us following the passing of a loved one?
