

How to Live for God's Glory

"Prepare Your Heart for History"

Daniel 5:1-31

How do we live for God's glory in a world hostile to His Name? We begin to prepare our hearts by learning from the history found in His Word and the history of the Saints in the Church. Those who are ignorant of history are doomed to repeat it and those who learn from history can walk in light of God's grace delivered to past generations. May we walk in the light of history.

An _____ of history turns us into _____ fools

Escape ignorance by learning of the

_____ of the _____

Escape ignorance by learning the

_____ of the _____

The Growth Group

Living for God's Glory

Daniel 5:1-31

Prepare Your Heart for History

Getting Started

1. What is your favorite biography?
2. What is the coldest temperature you can remember experiencing?

Digging Deeper

3. Why should we trust in the historical accounts of the Bible even when they haven't been proven by archeology?
4. Read Daniel 5:1-2. Why do you think Belshazzar would hold a feast with an enemy army surrounding his city?
5. Read Proverbs 16:1-2. How thorough is the judgment of God over the lives of men?
6. Read Daniel 5:22. How does a knowledge of God's working in history humble us?

Living It Out

7. How can we get the church more interested in history?
8. What is a historical book, article, or podcast you would recommend to the group?
9. What is your favorite historical narrative in the OT?