

The Servant King

Getting Started

1. Would you rather do a long, boring task or a short, demanding task?
2. How old were you when you did your first load of laundry?

Digging Deeper

3. Read II Sam 7:4-7. Why should David have been confident in God's Covenant with him?
4. Read Genesis 12:1-3. List the similarities between God's covenants to Abraham in Gen 12 and David in II Sam 7.
5. How does the LORD respond to the sins of His people (II Sam 7:14-15)?
6. Based on the promises of II Sam 7, what would the Jews have anticipated as Christ was called the Son of David?

Living It Out

7. What is your favorite expression of worship to Christ?
8. God made this Covenant with David and not with us, but how can we apply God's Covenant to David to our own lives today?
9. How do we build a house for the name of the LORD today?

דָּוִד Fugitive to King

The Servant King

II Samuel 7:1-17

David steps forward to serve God with a powerful display of worship in II Sam 7. David will build a temple to honor His God. God's response to David's praise is shocking and should alter the life of every worshipper of the God of David. Our Lord does not sit back as an aloof deity demanded humiliating service, but He is the Servant King who loves to dwell His people.

The LORD serves His people with His _____ in their lives.

The LORD serves His people by _____ for His servants.

The LORD serves His people with an _____.
