

DAVID King to Tyrant

Sinners in the Hands of An Angry God

II Samuel 24:1-25

How does God react to the sins of His Chosen People when they walk away from His truth and live in the world's lies? How should we respond to God's discipline upon us when we face the consequences of our sins? Today's sermon will look at God's reaction to the sins of His people. What should we expect when we are the sinner before an angry God?

The LORD is _____ over the
_____ of His own people.

The LORD's mercies are _____ when we turn back to Him in _____.

The LORD _____ our sin with the
_____ for all atonement of Christ.

DAVID King to Tyrant

Sinners in the Hands of An Angry God

II Samuel 24:1-25

How does God react to the sins of His Chosen People when they walk away from His truth and live in the world's lies? How should we respond to God's discipline upon us when we face the consequences of our sins? Today's sermon will look at God's reaction to the sins of His people. What should we expect when we are the sinner before an angry God?

The LORD is _____ over the
_____ of His own people.

The LORD's mercies are _____ when
we turn back to Him in _____.

The LORD _____ our sin with the
_____ for all atonement of Christ.
