

DAVID Warrior to Fugitive

Escape from Temptation

I Samuel 25:1-44

Satan stalks us like a roaring lion looking to devour us in our weakest moments. In those times, temptations feel inescapable. Thankfully, our God understands our weakness and provides us with a way of escape. In I Sam 25 we will see how our God works in our lives to provide us with an escape from all temptations.

Escape from Temptation

Getting Started

1. Do you have a favorite board game? If so, what is it?
2. What do you look for in a friend?

Digging Deeper

3. Read I Corinthians 10:1-13. What does this passage teach us about our susceptibility to sin through temptations?
4. Do you agree with Pastor's Shawn view that David was wrong to attack Nabal following Nabal's harsh words? Why or Why not?
5. Read I Sam 25:24. How might it have affected David's heart to hear Abigail take the blame for Nabal's words?
6. What should we learn from the above verse about approaching people who are struggling with temptation?

Living It Out

7. Who is a wise Abigail in your life that you can all on when temptation is growing hot in your life?
8. What is it so easy to minimize our own sins and the eventually consequences of those sins?
9. Share a passage(s) from the Bible that has helped you to escape from temptation in your own life.
