Romans 4:1-5

Victory by Faith

Who should we follow in order to find the way to God? Our parents, pastors, friends, or the prestigious in our society? The Apostle Paul encourages us to look to Abraham. Abraham, the founding father of three major religions, may have been the most important God-seeker in human history. How did Abraham find peace with God? Let's see in Romans 4:1-5 this morning.

Victory By Faith

Getting Started

1. Do you subscribe to any magazines? What was your last magazine subscription?
2. Is there anything that is common knowledge that you learned at an embarrassingly late age.

Digging Deeper

3. Read Gal 3:6-9. Why can we look to Abraham just as much as the person of Jewish descent?
4. Read Gal 3:18. What do we receive on top of righteousness when we approach God by faith?
5. Did Abraham maintain his faith with complete faithfulness as he waited on God to fulfill His promise?
6. The same Greek word for credit in Rom 4:3-5 is found in I Cor 13:5. How can this verse shed light on how God looks at us based on Christ?

Living It Out

7. What does it mean for you to know that God is the One who justifies the ungodly?
8. Why does Abraham make for such a good talking point as we share our faith with others?
9. What yet-to-be-fulfilled promise are you looking forward to God making reality in the future?
