

DAVID Warrior to Fugitive

Escape from Adversaries

I Samuel 21:1-22:23

Enemies will come against those who follow the Lord Jesus Christ. He promised that those who live as His disciples will experience persecution and rejection as He did. David knew the full force of persecution in this world as he was constantly pursued by adversaries. David helps us to see how God makes ways of escape for His people who face worldly adversaries.

Trust in God's _____ in times of ethical _____.

---

---

Trust in God to _____ our _____ into His _____

---

---

Trust in God's eternal _____ to bring _____ in the end.

---

---

Trust in God's _____ to shine in _____ hours.

---

Escape from Adversaries

Getting Started

1. What is your favorite classic novel?
2. Did you ever get pulled over for a driving infraction and escape without a ticket?

Digging Deeper

3. Read Matthew 12:1-8. What lesson does Jesus teach us from this story?
4. Read Psalm 34. How does the background of this Psalm (Sunday's sermon) change your view of David's praise?
5. Read Psalm 56. What has happened in David's life from his victory over Goliath until I Sam 22 that would bring him to tears?
6. Pastor Shawn called Doeg, one of the first figures of the anti-Christ. How is Doeg like the future anti-Christ?

Living It Out

7. What are difficult ethical situations that we may placed into in America today?
8. What does it mean that God will stay faithful to us as we try to navigate these confusing times?
9. Tell us a story of one of your failures or embarrassments so you can prepare to use your failures to share the Gospel.