

A Few of My Favorite
PSALMS

Psalm 91

This is a time when many of us are filled with fears from unseen terrors and invisible enemies. We fear viruses we can't detect, poverty we can't foresee, and laws many don't understand. How can we be remotely confidence when the ground beneath us feels so weak and the enemies look so strong? The Psalmist comes to us this morning with a message of confidence and strength.

We walk in confidence when we at _____ with _____.

We walk in confidence as we _____ in the _____ power of God.

We walk in confidence as we _____
the _____ of God.

The Way to Confidence

Getting Started

1. What's your favorite kind of coffee or tea?
2. Where do you feel the most at home?

Digging Deeper

3. Read Isaiah 25:1-5. Who does God promise to be a refuge and shelter to?
4. Read Psalm 32:6-7. How do we make the Lord our dwelling place and home?
5. Read Matt 4:5-6. Compare the real purpose of Psalm 91:11-12 with the meaning given to these verses by Satan.
6. Read Rev 12:9; I Peter 5:8; and Psalm 91:13. Who is described as both a lion and snake?

Living It Out

7. Why is it so hard to overcome fears to unseen or invisible dangers?
8. Which of the promises in Psalm 91:14-16 inspires the most confidence in your heart? Why?
9. What are you doing this week to try and hide the promises of Psalm 91:14-16 in your heart this week?